

Service of Divine Worship

Fifth Sunday After Epiphany

Liturgist: Rev. Walter Patten

February 7, 2010

Silent Meditation: “He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lakeside. He came to those who knew Him not. He speaks to us the same word: ‘Follow thou me!’ and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands, and to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, he will reveal Himself in the toil, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience Who He is.”

*Opening Prayer (unison) Liturgist
Inviting God, you call us to follow in many ways. You call some of us to witness with public deeds of justice, and you call some of us to do the quiet work of companionship. You call some of us to proclaim your truth in stirring speeches, and some to sing your love in gentle lullabies. Invite us to follow you by respecting the many different ways of witness, and rejoicing that we have so many chances to answer your call. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Call to Confession
Unison Prayer for the Confession of Sin Liturgist
Gracious God, we have heard at various times and places your invitation for us to follow you. We offer thanksgiving for those opportunities for following you which you have enabled us to heed. We also ask for your forgiveness when we have ignored your invitations to discipleship, choosing to go our own way, refusing even your spiritual empowerment to guide and direct our steps and actions. Grant that we may, this day, receive the spirit of meekness and humility which can neutralize our egos and render us more open to your guidance, that we may more completely answer “yes” to Him who calls us so tenderly; in the Name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Gracious God, let these gifts follow Christ’s lead into the lives of people who live in poverty or despair. Use them to heal divisions among your children. Show us how to be instruments of peace. Ready us to follow Jesus, to make an offering of ourselves, not just our money. Teach us so we may teach others. Heal us so we can become instruments of healing. To these purposes we dedicate this offering and our lives. Amen.
