Listening Beyond the Voices”

LISTEN

Welcome! If you are visiting with us, please fill out a pew card and place it in the offering plate when passed. Childcare for infants through Kindergarten is offered and hearing devices are available. Please let an usher know if you need assistance.

Please enter quietly and settle into an attentive and relaxed state of being. Let us begin this season of listening, of hearing that still, small voice and finding our own true selves.

Examen

(A prayer practice where we review our actions)

For that which, then, I thought was right...
have mercy, God.

For that which, now, I regret...
forgive me, God.

For that which, hence, I know not what to do...
guide me, God.

Come and rest, come and listen.
Know that grace, forgiveness and guidance are available to you at each and every moment that we turn to receive them.
Thanks be to God.

Silent Rest

Sit quietly in the silence without any expectation of what you “ought” to be thinking. Don’t worry about sounds from children or elsewhere—simply let them float into and out of your attention. And if you find it difficult to settle your thoughts, contemplate the following:

*Be Still,
and Know That I Am God.*

*Opening Hymn

“Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling” [Insert]

Children are invited to come forward on the last verse.

The Psalmist’s Prayer

Psalm 107: 23-32

Reader:

June Grubb

Listen, for the calm in the storm,

Listen, God is singing, God is singing.

Some of the redeemed had gone out on the ocean in ships, making their living on the high seas.

They saw what the Lord had made;

they saw God’s wondrous works in the depths of the sea.

God spoke and stirred up a storm

that brought the waves up high.

The waves went as high as the sky; they crashed down to the depths.

The sailors’ courage melted at this terrible situation.

They staggered and they stumbled.

None of their skill was of any help.

So they cried out to the Lord in their distress,

and God brought them out safe

from their desperate circumstances.

God quieted the storm to a whisper;

the sea’s waves were hushed.

So they rejoiced because the waves had calmed down;

then God led them to the harbor they were hoping for.

Let them thank the Lord for this faithful love

and God’s wondrous works for all people.

Let them exalt God in the congregation of the people and praise God in the assembly of the elders.

Seeking the Word

Romans 12: 2-12

Elizabeth Horton

The scripture in this series will be done in an abridged “lectio divina” format—which means “divine reading.” We will hear the scripture read once and then we will let that resonate for a bit with some music for the inward journey. What words or phrases popped out for you in the reading? Feel free to doodle in your Worship Guide with that word or phrase if you wish. When the music is over, we will hear the scripture read again.

Music for an Inward Journey

“Grace Lifted Me”

arr. Patti Drennan

*In loving kindness Jesus came, my soul in mercy to reclaim,
And from the depths of sin and shame through grace He Lifted me.
He called me long before I heard, before my sinful heart was stirred,
But when I took Him at His word, forgiv’n, He lifted me.*

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.*

*His brow was pierced with many a thorn, His hands by cruel nails were torn,
When from my guilt and grief, forlorn, in love He lifted me.
In loving kindness Jesus came to save a wretch like me!
And from the depth of sin and shame through grace He lifted me.*

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found; through grace He lifted me;
Through grace He lifted me.*

Hearing the Word

June Grubb

Romans 12: 2-12

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.
