

First Reformed United Church of Christ
Lexington, NC

SEPTEMBER 2019

September 8th kicks off a season of change in the life of this church. It is the last day that Cathy Waitman will serve as Director of Spiritual Growth and Renewal. In the worship service, we will share in a liturgy recognizing the end of her specialized ministry among us. At the Rally Day Luncheon, we will have special recognition of Cathy and her service.

Cathy was a member of this church for several years before stepping into the position of then-named Director of Christian Education. After taking some time away, Cathy will return to life as a member of First Reformed. In mid-October, we will welcome her back into the life of this congregation – minus her “Director” Duties! During her time away, I will work hard not to call Cathy to ask questions, get reminders, and basically depend upon her like I have. It will be tempting, because we will surely miss her! For me, she has consistently been a dependable solid rock upon which I could lean. We will experience a “wilderness” period as we are between the now and the not-yet. However, for Cathy to grow into the next step of her life, and for us to move into our next phase of ministry, we will need to honor Cathy's resignation, and find the way forward on our own.

Also on September 8 we begin an 11-week Series entitled, “What Disciples Do.” Christians are often identified by what we believe. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus seems to care more about what followers DO. I pray we will be challenged to live out the call of Jesus in very specific ways.

What Disciples Do:

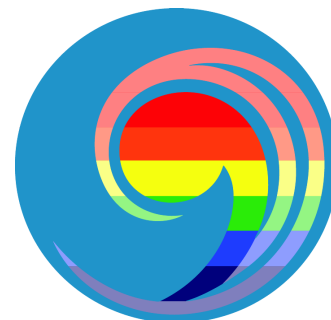

Sept. 8: We Take Faith Seriously
Luke 14: 25-33

Sept. 15: We Love the Outcasts
Luke 15: 1-10

Sept. 22: We Resist Greed
Luke 16: 1-13

Sept. 29: We Practice Generosity
Luke 16: 19-31

~Elizabeth

Prayer Shawl Ministry

CALLING ALL CRAFTERS!

Our crocheted and knitted prayer shawls have dwindled down to nothing, and we need your help. If you can crochet or knit, please consider making two or three shawls so we may replenish our supply.

Any color is acceptable, as well as any crochet or knit pattern. The only guideline is the shawls should be rectangular and measure approximately 12-inches x 60-inches.

WOMEN'S LIFE FELLOWSHIP & MEN'S BROTHERHOOD

Women's Life Fellowship & Men's Brotherhood will meet Tuesday, September 10th at 6:00 in the Fellowship Hall. Both groups will enjoy a meal together in the Fellowship Hall then split into separate groups to discuss business items specific to each group.

CONSISTORY HIGHLIGHTS

FROM THE AUGUST 11, 2019 MEETING

Consistory members should have board reports turned in to the Administrative Assistant by the Monday prior to the Sunday Consistory meeting. Items requiring a vote will be emailed for an e-vote. A Call for Choir Members!

~Submitted by Ellen Peterson

Hi church family! If you've ever pondered joining the choir, this is your chance! Regular choir rehearsals are resuming on Wednesday, September 4th at 7:15PM, and we are inviting you to join us. We meet in the Chapel Annex and rehearsals usually last about an hour. You don't need to know how to read music. All you need is a passion for sharing Christ's love through music. A sense of humor is great, too, because we certainly like to have a few laughs each week.

We will start preparing for this year's Christmas Cantata in September, and trust me, you don't want to miss this one! Just one important thing to note: you will feel more prepared on Sunday mornings if you can regularly attend Wednesday's rehearsals. I know how busy life can be, but those weekly rehearsals are pretty important!

I hope you will consider joining us (or at least giving us a try). You don't need to contact me before coming (but you certainly can!) Just come on September 4th, and we will give you some music and a place to sit!

COAT & CLOTHING DRIVE CONTINUES

ANY SIZE WARM CLOTHING FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN ACCEPTED

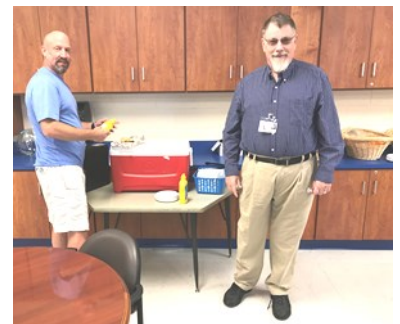

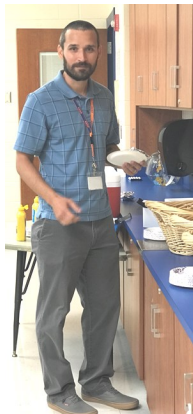

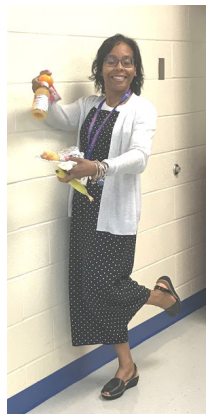

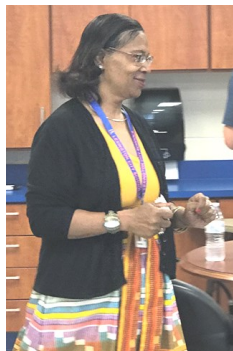

Thank you for the clothing donations that have been given so far. The closet is growing as varieties of shirts, pants, sweaters and coats are filling up the room downstairs, but there is plenty of room (and need) for much more. We continue to collect winter-weight clothing for all sizes. Donations can be left on the table across from the office OR you may contact Jerry (336-746-6493) or Patti (336-309-9302) to arrange a time to bring items downstairs using the driveway next to the playground.

PARTNERSHIP WITH CHARLES ENGLAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In association with our continued partnership with Charles England Elementary School, Jerry Lovell and the Board of Community Outreach purchased "Nurse's Station" containers to be filled with basic first aid supplies for each teacher's classroom. Beth Callicutt, principal, and teachers had fun filling the containers with necessary supplies.

On August 15 the faculty and staff were treated to a breakfast for Orientation Day 2019. It was a pick-up breakfast of sausage biscuits, fresh fruit, doughnut holes, fruit bars, and juice. It was appreciated and enjoyed by all!

"A Conversation on Race and Faith"

Collaborative Ministries' Series on Race and Faith will begin again on September 10 and continue EACH TUESDAY through October 15 from 12:00-1:00pm in our church Parlor. Each meeting will begin with lunch (BRING YOUR OWN BAG LUNCH) and is open to anyone who would like to attend. No special preparation is required.

FILMS FOR CONVERATIONS ON RACE & FAITH

On Tuesday, September 17 the monthly film series will continue at Second UCC with a viewing of The Green Pastures, a 1936 film depicting stories from the Bible as visualized by black characters. Despite some criticisms about racial stereotyping, the film was enormously popular. On its opening day at Radio City Music Hall, tickets sold at a rate of 6,000 per hour. The film was held over for an entire year's run at some theaters. Please join us at 6 p.m. in our fellowship for our viewing.

MEMBER FOCUS: EDGAR MILLER

This article comes from the August 2019 “Winston-Salem Monthly Magazine.”

EDGAR MILLER

On protecting and improving the Yadkin River.

BY SUZY FIELDS

Most Winston-Salem natives have fond memories of playing, swimming, and fishing in the Yadkin River. But it's also a main source of drinking water in the Triad — and the state. Have you ever wondered who takes care of this important piece of Mother Nature?

Edgar Miller, Yadkin Riverkeeper's new executive director, sat down with us to talk about the organization, fun upcoming paddles, and why he loves Winston-Salem as a place to work and play.

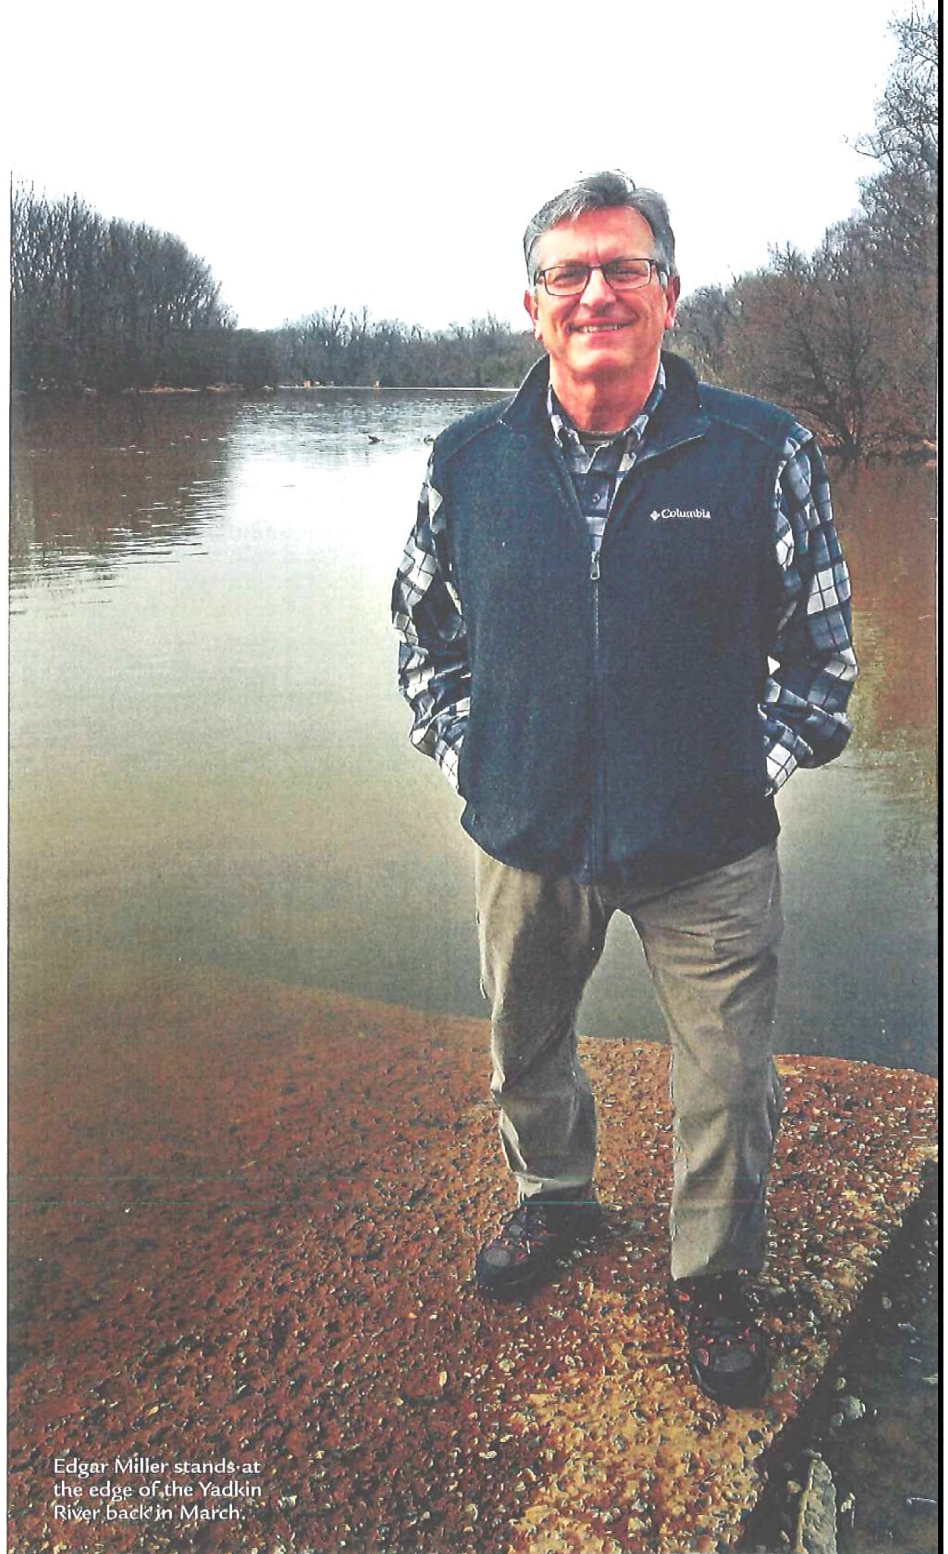

1. How does Yadkin Riverkeeper help the local community?

“Our mission is to protect and enhance the river through education, advocacy, and action. Of course, the ultimate goal of this mission is to keep the river drinkable, swimmable, and fishable. Nearly 1 million North Carolinians depend on the Yadkin River and its tributaries for drinking water.

“We work every day to protect the river from threats to water quality and quantity. Also, we assist local communities that may be facing environmental concerns in their own backyards, literally and figuratively. Whether its hazardous waste at old manufacturing sites impacting a community's health or eroding stream banks filling feeder streams with sediment, we're here to help address those challenges.”

2. What are your goals as the executive director for Yadkin Riverkeeper?

“My main focus right now is growing our membership and donor base by increasing public awareness about why the river is so important to our region. Additionally, I'm working with our riverkeeper to keep us at the forefront of assessing and addressing environmental threats to the river. Our long-term goals include supporting communities that are protecting their watersheds, and improving access and recreational opportunities on the river."

Edgar Miller stands at the edge of the Yadkin River back in March.

3. What are some ways to get involved?

"Supporting our efforts by becoming a member is a great first step. There are also numerous volunteer opportunities to help with river and lake cleanups, stream restoration projects, and citizen monitoring programs."

4. What events and programs are coming up for Yadkin Riverkeeper?

"This year we're launching a historic paddle series for smaller groups to explore some notable places along the river. Spots include the Wil-Cox Bridge area in Davidson and Rowan County, the shoals area in Yadkin County, and the Shallowford area in Forsyth. We'll also conduct larger paddles this summer over the summer solstice and [this month] from Elkin to the Carolina Heritage Vineyard & Winery at the confluence of the Yadkin and Mitchell rivers. Participating in these paddles is a great way to learn more about the river, enjoy the beautiful scenery, and get exercise."

5. Do you have a favorite spot to hang out in Winston-Salem?

"I really enjoy the amazing restaurants in West End and downtown, as well as shopping at all the eclectic shops around West Fourth and Burke streets. Last but not least, you can't go wrong at Foothills Brewing and Footnote Coffee & Cocktails, where we just held our 2019 annual membership meeting."

BONUS: What makes Winston-Salem special to you?

"While I grew up in Lexington, I fondly remember celebrating the Christmas season in Winston-Salem. My family would eat at the Towne Steak House and shop at the downtown Sears. Ironically, our offices are located right across from where the old Sears stood on West Fourth Street. The Winston-Salem community has always supported the Yadkin Riverkeeper organization over the years, for which we are very grateful. It reflects the generous spirit that I've always associated with Winston-Salem."

DURING OCTOBER FOR CHILDREN & YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

Volunteers are needed to teach either the CHILDREN or YOUTH or to serve as a ROVING HELPER.

Volunteering for FAITH FORMATION for either the CHILDREN or YOUTH group or serving as ROVER would be helpful, even if it's just for one Sunday.

Lessons are already planned and printed for each Sunday during October.

Volunteers need to be background checked.

Please contact the church office if you are willing to help! (336-248-2617)
