

FIRST REFORMED UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lexington, NC

JULY 2020

July 4th 1776 – the day of the final signing of the Declaration of Independence, where America declares itself to be a free autonomous nation, no longer under the rule of the British Empire.

We recall the famous powerful words from the 2nd paragraph:

"WE hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness..."

This Independence Day, let us ask the question, "How can we exercise our American freedoms so that we can more fully exercise our faith?"

Because we are Christians, our Highest allegiance is to God who is revealed to us in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In Corinthians 8:9, the Apostle Paul warns the believers, "Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak." Meaning, just because we are free to act, doesn't mean we should. As disciples, there are times we must give up our freedom when we see that it hurts others or when it puts an obstacle in the path for others to be free. Relinquishing our freedom for the good of our neighbor is not losing it, on the contrary – it is one way of using it.

We are incredibly fortunate to live in America even with its flawed history and broken places. May we strive to exercise our freedoms to show love to our neighbor, care for the poor, feed the hungry, set free the oppressed, bring peace among the people, and bless all the children of this land.

I hope you will watch Robert Wilson's Patriotic Hymns and History Online Concert that will air on our YouTube and FB pages beginning July 1st at 7pm. May America's music propel us to act so that all our brothers and sisters may have the right to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness...

Serving with you in freedom and faith,
--Elizabeth

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT

Thank you Members and Online Friends!

During the 2020 Coronavirus Pandemic you have been faithful stewards of God's gifts and the church thanks you for your continued support. Although we have been unable to formally gather as a congregation for worship services, you have continued to mail, drop-off or give online for the ministries of First Reformed United Church of Christ.

First Reformed UCC was able to obtain a Payroll Protection Program Loan. While this gift helped for the month of May, we hope you will remember the church during the summer season as we continue to serve our church family and community.

Proceeds will go to the church's general fund. The cost is $5 each. If you are interested in purchasing, please contact the church office. We appreciate Ron and Heidi Hutcheson's help at Davidson Speed Printing.

NEW TUESDAY NIGHT BOOK STUDY

A new Tuesday night book study via ZOOM, will begin on July 7th at 7:00 p.m. The book, White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk About Racism, written by Dr. Robin DiAngelo, allows us to understand racism as a practice not restricted to "bad people." It considers the defensive moves that white people make when challenged racially, seen through such emotions as anger, fear, and guilt and by behaviors such as argumentation and silence. Dr. DiAngelo examines how white fragility develops, how it protects racial inequality, and what we can do to engage more constructively...a very timely and important topic for serious conversation through the lens of faith.

Edgar Miller will be one of the facilitators for these discussions along with Stacy Sosebee-West, Bonita Hooper, Smithie Parrish and Joe Browder.

Order your copy wherever books are sold.
Please ask Rev. June (jgrubb3@triad.rr.com) or Stacy (sosebeewest@hotmail.com)
if you need assistance.

WHY FIRST REFORMED? Rev. Jay Whitley

Back in February, I was having lunch at a local restaurant with a friend of mine. During our time together, I mentioned to him that Cathy and I had decided to place our church memberships at First Reformed United Church of Christ in Lexington. He expressed his joy for us because he knew we had been looking for a church home for some time. Then he asked the inevitable question, "Why?"

Feeling sure that he would ask that specific question, the following was my answer. Cathy and I visited First Reformed UCC on several occasions. We tried to keep our hearts and minds open to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Everything felt good. We were warmly welcomed at each visit. Since I am retired UCC clergy, I already felt community with friends of many years. Cathy had worked in downtown Lexington for twenty years and had developed relationships with others in the church while being employed as a legal assistant with Biesecker, Tripp, Sink & Fritts. It just made sense that we "go to church" with those with whom we were comfortable.

Still there are other reasons. For us to "join a church" there had to be more than relationships. We needed intent, substance, and purpose. We found that First Reformed UCC created for us substantive reasons to be a part of this church. They were:

- 1) An historic relationship with The Reformed Church and The United Church of Christ. Tradition is important to us.

- 2) It had to be Open and Affirming. Our opinion is that any community of faith can only be the Church if it is affirming the talents and abilities of all God's people while opening its doors to all who wish to be a part.
- 3) An orientation to mission and ministry beyond the local church. We desired to be a part of a church that had a global concept as well as a community perspective.
- 4) It had to be a church that was committed to prayerful, financial, and corporate support of the professional staff.
- 5) We needed a faith community of people who had a desire and determination to grow the church.

Cathy and I believe that after much prayer and discernment we have found a church family with which we can grow and be a part of a ministry that is making a difference to "Be The Church." Please do not think that we feel that First Reformed is a "perfect church." We are not deluded. We do feel, however, that our church is on the right path. By doing so, we believe First Reformed to be the Light upon the hill which cannot be hidden.

Maybe not a perfect church, but, maybe perfect for us! Thank you for allowing us to be a part!

Blessings for your journey,
Jay and Cathy Whitley

FIRST REFORMED UCC GARDEN GOING STRONG

By Edgar Miller

The First Reformed UCC Community Garden enters its 10th growing season with great anticipation for our best year yet. Unfortunately, we got off to a slow start due to an irrigation system problem that flooded our bed of recently planted potatoes back in April, resulting in the loss of nearly 80 percent of our potato crop. As they say, "...that's farming," or in our case gardening. After a few repairs, we bounced back quickly and planted green beans in that bed, which we should begin harvesting in early July. In addition to green beans, Open Hands of Davidson County workers have planted onions, peppers, tomatoes, squash and sweet potatoes. We've also had a bumper crop of blueberries this year, already harvesting nearly four gallons for Pastor's Pantry clients with more to come if the birds don't get them first. In addition to the generous support from the Lexington Garden Club and individual church members, we received an anonymous $500 donation to the garden in June in honor of Sylvia Walser and Aurelia Smith. Thank you, whoever you are.

While it has been disappointing that we haven't been able to have the kids in the garden to help with harvesting and will likely not be able to sponsor the Great Tomato Sandwich Giveaway this summer, we will be hosting beginning garden workshops in the garden in July in conjunction with the Davidson County local Food Network and Cooperative Extension, demonstrating again how the garden is a resource for our broader community.

As always, if you are looking to get out of the house to get some fresh air and your hands dirty, please contact Edgar Miller at edgarmiller@gmail.com to find out how you can volunteer in the garden.

Jia picked about 15 pints of blueberries at the community garden to deliver to Pastor's Pantry. There will be plenty more to pick soon.

The graphic is a patriotic-themed poster for an online concert. It features a blue border and is decorated with various elements: large blue and red stars, green fireworks, blue and red stars, and two Uncle Sam hats. Music Fund Balance - $7,570

The Financial Secretary reported all bills are current.

Old Business:

Fundraising opportunities for Jeff Hutchens continue through the end of July 2020.

New Business:

Johns River Valley Camp "Ramp Up for Camp": Since Johns River is not accepting campers this summer because of the Coronavirus, they have a fundraising campaign available to send boxes to potential campers with projects and coupons for next year's camp. Consistory approved a donation of $1,000 for First Reformed UCC campers to the "Ramp Up for Camp" campaign.

Livestream Equipment: The possibility of upgrading the sanctuary video/sound equipment to livestream the worship service is being researched. Consistory President, Eddie Yates has talked with Calvin Odom, Clifton Murphy, Ellen and Jeremy Peterson about items needing upgraded. More research is needed.

UCC Covid-19 Conference Recovery Grant Application:

Rev. Horton has applied for and received a $3,000 grant from the National UCC to assist UCC churches during the pandemic closures. If the grant is received, it will be used toward additional resources we need to return to church. Great thanks to Paula Lopp for completing and submitting the paperwork!

Originally the Consistory Calendar did not have a scheduled July meeting, but it was decided a meeting will be held on July 12th.

Discussion on Returning to the Sanctuary:

The Consistory agreed to continue with caution and continue only online worship through July. This decision was based on information from multiple sources and input from church members.

Update on Conversations on Faith and Race (2CFar):

The next regularly scheduled Consistory meeting is July 12, 2020.
