

FIRST REFORMED UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lexington, NC

NOVEMBER 2020

"Give thanks in all circumstances."

I Thessalonians 5:18

At the beginning of March, Robert Wilson began as our interim organist. Quite frankly, we didn't know how worship would be without Lee Ann Peele at the keys. And then God sent Robert. After only one service in the sanctuary, Covid hit and our services went online. Again, we were left unsure about the future. And yet, Robert has done a tremendous job providing music in worship and also adapting to the ever-changing circumstances; not only by playing the organ, but recording himself doing so, and teaching us about hymns and the church's organ along the way. Robert has been exactly who this church needed during this season of virtual services. And we have been reassured of a simple, yet, sometimes hard to believe tenet of our faith: God will always provide. We will need to keep this in mind over the next couple of months, as our season with Robert will end on December 31 of this year. Below are his own words describing his decision not to renew his contract.

"First, for a long time, I have felt the call of God on my heart for pastoral ministry. I am most at peace when I am offering my service to God in pastoral ministry. With that, I feel that I must answer this call, so that I am pursuing what I feel God has laid on my heart. I shared this calling with Elizabeth when I first came, and a few nights ago, I shared this sentiment again.

Second, I want to be very clear that I have enjoyed my time here. This has been a most gracious congregation to serve and work among. The people are warm, welcoming, and gracious. The organ is fantastic. This church has been as much a blessing to me, as I hope I have been to it. The people here are amazing, and I can certainly see the spirit of God at work in this place.

Third, both Ellen and Elizabeth have been wonderful to work with. Elizabeth has tried to create authentic worship experiences, and Ellen and I have worked closely together to make these visions a reality. In addition, Ellen and I have worked well to maintain music for the digital services and other events that the church has had need of. It has been an honor to serve alongside both of them.

Finally, I thank each and every one of you for the amazing opportunity that I have had to grow and blossom here. God is at work in this place, and just as he sent me to you, he will provide a path forward from here. Transitions are never easy, but when God is present, ministry will take place. God has a purpose in all things, and there is a purpose even in this transitory season. Again, I cannot thank you enough for the amazing opportunity to have been your interim organist."

We give thanks for Robert's ministry among us.

We give thanks that he is following the call of God in his life for pastoral ministry.

We give thanks, in these circumstances, that God will continue to provide for us all.

Elizabeth

CONGRATULATIONS, REV. HORTON!

Rev. Elizabeth Horton was presented this plaque at the beginning of the virtual Western North Carolina Association meeting that was held the weekend of October 16-17.

Dr. Davis wanted someone in each Association to be recognized for continuous leadership, even in the midst of the pandemic. He charged each Associate Conference Minister with choosing someone in their perspective association who had demonstrated leadership during the pandemic. Elizabeth was chosen for her outstanding continuous leadership during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

The plaques were obtained by the Conference but Dr. Davis wanted them presented in each Association meeting, since that person represented their work within.

Congratulations, Rev. Horton, for your continued efforts to allow us worship together while apart. We appreciate your faithfulness to our congregation!

SAYING GOOD-BYE TO OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

Rev. Susan Morris has served faithfully since the beginning of 2020. She has especially brought unison to our church's youth and children's groups, even during the time of Covid-19 when these groups were only able to meet virtually.

While she is not saying good-bye as a member of our church, October 30, 2020 is her last day as our Associate Pastor of Faith Formation. We wish you the best, Rev. Susan!

Dear Church Family:

You all are amazing and wonderful. I am thankful that I have had the opportunity of serving alongside you as the Associate Pastor of Faith Formation over this past year. And what a year it has been with all the challenges of COVID 19. Thank you for all the support you have given me. I have enjoyed being part of this incredible ministry.

Peace,
Susan

REFLECTIONS FOR HOMECOMING 2020

Peggy Bailey Bates

Hello, I am Peggy Bailey Bates. Rita Lohr, from the Homecoming Committee, asked me to share a few memories about our church.

I was born on June 22, 1932. My parents were members of our church, and I was baptized on October 30, 1932 by Dr. J.C. Leonard. I grew up in our church, being in Sunday school and church. As a teen some of our youth went to the Methodist Church for their youth meeting. I joined that church and married Ed Bates at the Methodist Church.

Ed did not want to come to the Methodist Church. He had gotten out of the Navy and had not attended church. He said he would go to the First Reformed Church because all his family and my family were members there. We talked to Rev. Peeler and he accepted us one day in the sanctuary. I told people Ed and I came in the door running, as we got involved in Sunday School, choir, circle, men's meetings and ball games. I taught Sunday school in Kindergarten with my late dear friend Pat Potts.

Marguerite Leonard was secretary for the Church and a wonderful organist. She wanted to quit being the secretary. Rev. Schaffer was the minister, and he asked me if I wanted the job. I accepted and was there when we moved in our Educational Facility. I quit and Paula Lopp took my place.

Marguerite was also the president of the Morning Glory Circle, which she also passed on to me. Barbara Schaffer, wife of Rev. Schaffer, suggested that the Morning Glory circle have a dinner and bazaar to raise money for the new Education Building we were building. I was the President. This was a big event. We had people all lined up East Center Street, and we ran out of food.

I miss our church. My life has changed. Thanks for the DVD services. May God bless each of you.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT!

OUR PARTNERSHIP WITH CHARLES ENGLAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In the middle of October, Charles England Elementary School had depleted their supply of nonperishable items in their pantry. CEES students would not receive anything from the Food Backpack Program. The school reached out to us, asking for assistance. First Reformed responded by donating a check for $300 from our Designated Offerings and budgeted funds.

Please continue to support our Partnership. Mark your donations to "CEES". When there is a need, the donations will go straight to the school so the staff can make purchases to replenish the Pantry.

Because of Coronavirus precautions, the Congregational Budget Meeting was a virtual meeting via zoom held, October 11, 2020 at 12:30PM. Eddie Yates and Paula Lopp were available to answer questions.

A copy of the budget had been emailed/mailed to all church members for review prior to this meeting.

Consistory President Eddie Yates called the meeting to order. He noted that only one question had been addressed asking why utilities weren't less this year? He explained that the church is still open for staff, and we have equipment that must be maintained at a specific temperature, so utility payments have continued to be made.

A motion was made to approve the 2021 budget as written. It was seconded. All present approved. In addition, members who had received the budget by email or letter had called in or emailed the office to vote on the budget.

All votes, either emailed, phoned in, or made at the virtual meeting approved the budget with no votes against.

President Yates adjourned the meeting.

As part of an Earth Day activity, on Sunday, April 21, 2019 Cathy Waitman helped the children make seed bombs to plant outside in the Memorial Garden. The marigolds bloomed beautifully that summer. They have also shown up again this year, and they are even prettier than last year's blossoms. # REMEMBER TO COMPLETE YOUR 2021 PLEDGE CARD...

You will be enriched in every way to be
generous in every way.
which through us will produce thanksgiving
to God.
2 Corinthians 9:11

Even amidst the many months of Covid-19, our Sunday worship services, under the leadership of Rev. Elizabeth Horton, have continued. Many volunteers from our congregation have helped with these, and music provided by Ellen, Robert and members of our choir have helped make these services feel complete. Thanks to Ellen's skills, the parts of each service have been organized into seamless videos that help us imagine we are worshipping in our sanctuary. Thanks to the generous contributions from our congregation, our giving has also remained constant.

2021 Pledge Cards were sent out at the end of October along with the Time & Talent Sheets. Please give both your prayerful consideration as you complete them. You may mail them to the office, drop them off if you are uptown or scan and email them. You will also have an opportunity on Sunday, November 8th to bring these to church. More details will be provided later about this opportunity.

A copy of the pledge card is shown below for your use. Also, a copy of the Time & Talent Sheet can be found on the following two pages.

Please let us know ways you would like to serve in the mission and ministry of First Reformed UCC in 2021. Every Sunday, volunteers fill more than two dozen roles, serving the church and each other in many different ways. Community service, social justice, and other mission work are essential parts of First Reformed UCC's ministry.

Our church Consistory is organized into SIX BOARDS, each with responsibilities related to the overall ministry of the church and its activities. When you check with interest to serve on one of the boards, a lay leader will contact you to discuss how you would like to serve. They will also use this list as the "first people to call" as new opportunities and needs arise throughout the year.
